

14 January 1963

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
2723 Q Street, N. W.
Washington 7, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Central Intelligence Agency has reviewed, solely from the view point of national security, your draft of 5 December 1962, "Study on Intelligence." The manuscript is not objectionable from the viewpoint of national security. It is our understanding that the fact that you submitted the manuscript to the CIA and that we checked it in the interest of national security will not be made public.

While the preparation of this manuscript was done by you as a private citizen, the fact that you were the Director of Central Intelligence, could conceivably cause some people to erroneously believe that this is an authoritative account participated in by the Central Intelligence Agency. The CIA for the record, states that it did not authorize the writing and it does not approve this publication; it disclaims any and all responsibility for its content.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
